4. How we protect your personal data

- 4.1 We will not transfer your personal data outside the EU without your consent.
- 4.2 We have implemented generally accepted standards of technology and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse or unauthorised alteration or destruction.
- 4.3 Please note however that where you are transmitting information to us over the internet this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure.
- 4.4 We will notify you promptly in the event of a breach of your personal data, which might expose you to serious risk.

5. Who else has access to the information you provide us?

- 5.1 We will never sell your personal data. We will not share your personal data with any third parties without your prior consent. (Which you are free to withhold) except where required to do so by law or as set out in the table above or paragraph 5.2 below.

5.2 We may share your data with cricketing partners such as Lancashire Cricket and its subsidiaries, the ECB, other district cricket organisations and a data administrator (acting as membership secretary on behalf of the committee) as part of administering your involvement with the Club.

In the event of a medical or child protection issue, the club may disclose certain information to medical professionals, the police, social services, courts and potentially to legal and other advisors involved in any investigation.

We will not transfer your data to any other third parties without obtaining your consent and, where possible, will anonymise your data before sharing

We will also not share any other personal data you provide to us that is not cricket/social related data. We may pass your personal data to third parties who are service providers, agents and subcontractors for the purpose of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (e.g. printing of newsletters and sending you mailings).

However, we would only disclose the personal data necessary for the third party to deliver the service and we would ensure a contract in place that would require them to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own purposes.

6. How long do we keep your information?

6.1 We will hold your personal data on our systems for as long as you are a member of Greenfield Cricket & Social Club and for as long afterwards as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations.

6.2 We will review your personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If we decide that we are not entitled to do so, we will stop processing your personal data except that we will retain your personal data in an archived form in order to comply with future legal obligations e.g. compliance with tax requirements and exemptions, and the establishment exercise or defence of legal claims.

7. Your rights

You have the following rights under data protection legislation:

7.1 To access a copy of the information comprised in your personal data

7.2 To object to processing your personal data that is likely to cause or is causing damage or distress:

7.3 To prevent processing for direct marketing

7.4 To object to decisions being taken by automated means;

8. Complaints.

If you have any concerns or complaints in relation to how Greenfield Cricket and Social Club collects and/or processes your personal data, you should contact Greenfield Cricket Club's data protection officer in the first instance. If you are dissatisfied with how your concerns/complaint is dealt with by Greenfield Cricket & Social Club, you have the right to report your concern/complaint to the Information Commissioners Officer (www.ico.org.uk).
